

Main Hub

Parenting YouTuber Arrested of Child Abuse

R. Franke, a mother from Utah was arrested of child abuse after one of her children climbed out the window to ask a neighbor for help. She is known for her strict parenting style that she shares on social media. After the neighbor called the police, and they found another kid also abused and malnourished. Both kids were taken to the hospital and the mother and her business partner J. Hildebrandt who was the owner of the house and apparently responsible with direct care of the two children. Franke had almost 2.5 Million followers on youtube watching the lives of her 6 children. The Youtube channel was taken down but a comment from Google is yet to be published. The oldest daughter of her, Shari Franke who is a student at Brigham Young University posted about her mother's arrest, saying "Justice is being served."

Original news page here

PDF version here.